

Job Post Subscription Plans

Hiring in Portland can feel like a never-ending process. Whether you're growing fast or experiencing turnover in your organization, you need a simple way to post and fill open positions while building trust with local talent.

With Mac's List subscription plans, you can sign on for a 12-month subscription with unlimited job listings at a price customized to the needs and size of your business. We'll automatically feed your new job listings onto Mac's List, getting them in front of qualified local candidates and offering upgrades.

KEY BENEFITS

Save time. No more copying and pasting text into forms.

Save money. Post all your jobs at a flat rate and save big over our single-listing price.

Local exposure. Individual job listing upgrades to add exposure for high-need openings.

Sync up. Never worry about orphaned, obsolete job posts again!

HOW IT WORKS

Every business day, Mac's List will scan the careers page on your website or ATS to look for new jobs, changes in job info, or jobs that have been removed.

We'll parse the data and automatically post your job listings on Mac's List. When jobs change on your site, they get updated on Mac's List.

We'll promote your jobs on the web, through social and on our huge opt-in mailing list of qualified candidates.

Skilled, passionate professionals apply for your jobs, through your established application process.

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS INCLUDE

- Unlimited job listings on Mac's List.
- Automated feed from your careers page to Mac's List, with custom setup included.
- Tiered pricing based on how many people work for your organization.
